

Mount Rainier National Park

November 2006 Flood Damage

On November 6 and 7, 2006, Mount Rainier National Park received 18 inches of rain in 36 hours. This presentation summarizes the extensive flood damage that occurred throughout the park.

Mount Rainier National Park

November 2006 Flood Damage

The Nisqually Road and site of the former Sunshine Point Campground

Mount Rainier National Park

November 2006 Flood Damage

An aerial view of the former Sunshine Point Campground

Mount Rainier National Park

November 2006 Flood Damage

Satellite image of the Sunshine Point Campground, showing new shoreline

Mount Rainier National Park

November 2006 Flood Damage

Landslide below Stevens Ridge in Stevens Canyon